

Congress has completely failed in its duty to the public. Radio has become a joke, in San Diego a massive number of stations are owned by one right-wing corporation which serves music to the lowest common denominator. I am willing to pay to have the diversity I want. Stop messing with XM. Michael Monteon